

The Community Foundation of Greater Lafayette
Operating Policy

The highest priority is placed on privacy of donor information within the Foundation. Accordingly,

1. PRIVACY STATEMENT

This website is owned and operated by The Community Foundation of Greater Lafayette (CFGL). Our intention is to inform and educate visitors about our work as a grantmaker, community resource, and philanthropic partner to local individuals, families, and corporations. The Community Foundation of Greater Lafayette is committed to honoring the privacy of all those we work with, including visitors to our website.

2. PERSONAL INFORMATION

Your right to privacy is very important to us. We recognize that providing The Community Foundation of Greater Lafayette with your personal information is an act of trust. When you visit The Community Foundation of Greater Lafayette online, you remain anonymous, as we do not require registration to view our website or access information.

3. INFORMATION USE

As part of our donor recognition efforts, CFGL may publicize donor names through its annual report, newsletters, website, donor exhibits, and promotional materials (i.e., in the case of sponsorships). The specific gift amount will not be identified. Donors always have the option of remaining “anonymous” when making a donation and will not be publicly recognized.

4. THIRD PARTY SITES

Throughout our website(s), we offer links to third party sites. Since we do not control those websites, we encourage you to review their privacy policies as well.

5. COMMUNICATIONS

CFGL may contact donors through direct mail, e-mail, social networking resources, and telephone. Any donor may request that The Foundation remove their name from some or all CFGL mailing lists. Donors may also specify a preferred method of contact.
